Office Hour Information:

I will hold office hours on Zoom on Wednesdays from 9:30-11:10 a.m.

This is the office hour link: <https://sjsu.zoom.us/j/2239875288>

Appointments are recommended and drop-ins are always welcome.

Course Information

This is an asynchronous online course, so there will be no synchronous meetings.

You will need to read the materials, turn in assignments by the posted deadlines, and communicate with me and your classmates via email, discussion boards, and Zoom.

Course Description and Requisites

Focuses on the relationship between language and logic in composing arguments. Students learn various methods of effective reasoning and appropriate rhetorical strategies to help them invent, demonstrate, and express arguments clearly, logically, and persuasively.

Satisfies 1B. Critical Thinking and Writing (Formerly Area A3).

Prerequisite(s): Completion of GE Area 1A with a grade of C- or better.

Grading: Letter Graded

Note(s): ENGL 2 is not open to students who successfully completed ENGL 1B.

* Classroom Protocols

ENGL 2

This course is open to all students needing to fulfill GE Area 1B: Critical Thinking and Writing (Formerly Area A3). It is not open to students who have successfully completed ENGL 1B.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1A or Stretch English (with a grade of C- or better)

Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. You will engage in integrated reading, Writing, and oral assignments to construct your own arguments on complex issues (such as diversity and ethnicity, class and social equality) that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different ethnicities, genders, and socio-economic classes.

Writing: You will write a series of essays informed by research and articulating fully developed arguments about complex issues. Assignments emphasize those skills and activities in writing and thinking that produce the persuasive argument and the critical essay, each of which demands analysis, interpretation, and evaluation. Writing assignments give you repeated practice in prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form.

Logic: You will learn methods of argument analysis, both rhetorical and logical, that will allow you to identify logical structures (such as warrants, evidence, qualification, rebuttal; enthymemes and syllogisms) and distinguish common logical fallacies.

Reading: In addition to being writing intensive, ENGL 2 is also a reading course. You will read a variety of critical and argumentative texts to help develop your skills for understanding the logical structure of argumentative writing.

Oral: You will be presenting your arguments orally to class both as an individual and as part of a group.

Faculty Web Page and MYSJSU Messaging

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on the Canvas Learning Management System course login website. You're responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU to learn of any updates. For help with using Canvas see Canvas Student Resources page.

Time Commitment

Success in ENGL 2 is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Final Examination or Evaluation

In ENGL 2, our learning culminates in a digital Reflection and Portfolio Assignment. In this assignment, we will gather samples of our writing that demonstrate our learning; we will write a reflection essay that explains what we have learned, how we learned it, and how we will use it in future learning; and we will submit our portfolio for consideration to other people in the first-year writing program. This is our chance to identify and articulate what we've learned and what we'll take forward with us into future learning/writing experiences.

Program Policies

First-Year Writing policies are listed at the following website:

<https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php>
\(https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php\).

Program Information

Welcome to this General Education course.

SJSU's General Education Program establishes a strong foundation of versatile skills, fosters curiosity about the world, promotes ethical judgment, and prepares students to engage and contribute responsibly and cooperatively in a multicultural, information-rich society. General education classes integrate areas of study and encourage progressively more complex and creative analysis, expression, and problem solving.

The General Education Program has three goals:

Goal 1: To develop students' core competencies for academic, personal, creative, and professional pursuits.

Goal 2: To enact the university's commitment to diversity, inclusion, and justice by ensuring that students have the knowledge and skills to serve and contribute to the well-being of local and global communities and the environment.

Goal 3: To offer students integrated, multidisciplinary, and innovative study in which they pose challenging questions, address complex issues, and develop cooperative and creative responses.

More information about the General Education Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) can be found on the GE website (<https://sjsu.edu/general-education/ge-requirements/overview/learning-outcomes.php>).

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

GE Area 1B: Critical Thinking and Writing

Area 1B courses develop students' understanding of the relationship of language to logic. By engaging students in complex issues requiring critical thinking and effective argumentation, 1B courses develop students' abilities to research and analyze important topics and to construct their own arguments on issues that generate meaningful public debate and deliberation. Courses include explicit instruction and practice in inductive and deductive reasoning as well as identification of formal and informal fallacies of language and thought. Completion of Area 1A (Written Communication I) with a minimum grade of C- is a prerequisite for enrollment in Area 1B. Completion of Area 1B with a grade of C- or better is a CSU graduation requirement.

GE Area 1B Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of an Area 1B course, students should be able to:

1. locate, interpret, evaluate, and synthesize evidence in a comprehensive way, including through library research; and integrate research findings into oral and written arguments through appropriate citation and quotation;
2. use a range of rhetorical and logical strategies to articulate and explain their positions on complex issues in dialogue with other points of view;
3. identify and critically evaluate the assumptions in and the contexts of arguments; and
4. use inductive and deductive logic to construct valid, evidence-supported arguments and draw valid conclusions.

Writing requirement

This class requires a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form.

Course Materials

You may have seen on the bookstore listings that we will read a book called What The Eyes Don't See by Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha, however you do not need to buy it. You can access the ebook for free through the MLK Library.

We will also use The New York Times, which is free to all SJSU students. To set up your free subscription, all you need to do is provide your sjsu.edu email address on this sign-up page: <https://library.sjsu.edu/nyt-online>

You do not need to provide payment information.

We will read selected chapters from a free pdf of Everything's an Argument, 6th edition by Andrea Lunsford and other sources. These readings will be provided on Canvas.

✓ Grading Information

English 2

Kristin FitzPatrick Ezell

Grading Contract:

In this class, we will work as a learning community to develop our approaches to reading and writing different types of texts. We will experiment with unfamiliar strategies, and at times we will feel unsure about the direction of our work and our comprehension of the work of others. We will develop processes to help us, including prewriting/pre-creating, drafting, workshopping, and revising. We will rely on each other for feedback and support, but we will also take charge of our own learning and success. What does that mean in terms of grading?

This class is meant to improve your skills and experiences as college-level writers, drawing from each of your unique funds of knowledge. Therefore, we will not be using a traditional grading system. Instead, you will be largely responsible for your own grade.

The default grade for this course is a "B+." If you do all that is asked of you in the manner and spirit in which it is asked, if you work through the processes we establish and the work we do throughout the semester, if you continue to improve those processes in order to gain more intensity and engagement in your writing, then you will receive a "B+." If you miss in-class activities, turn in assignments late, fail to increase your work's intensity, or fail to submit assignments, your grade will be lower.

You will not be graded, at least not in a traditional sense, on any assignment. Instead, you will receive spoken or written feedback from your peers and writing coach for each major assignment. All work (major and minor assignments) will be awarded one point for completion and meeting requirements. Revised assignments MUST be revised significantly in order to receive credit. Any final draft that is not significantly revised will receive a grade of 0.

You are guaranteed a "B+" if you meet the following conditions:

1. You complete 88% of all in-class and out-of-class minor assignments, including in-class reading responses and outlines and drafts of all major assignments. Note: In-class assignments cannot be made up as the result of an absence.

2. You prioritize attendance and participate in in-class activities.
3. You abide by the classroom protocol/community agreements we establish as a writing/learning community.
4. You work cooperatively and collegially in groups. We will come up with parameters for constructive criticism and a shared vocabulary for discussing potentially sensitive subjects.
5. You complete and submit all major and minor assignments on time.
6. You may turn in one major assignment late per semester. Late work must be submitted within 48 hours of the initial due date.
7. All submissions are complete. Any incomplete assignments or assignments that do not meet the requirements of the prompt will be deemed “missed.” You will not receive credit for missed work.
8. You receive a 1/1 on all minor assignments and 10/10 on all major essays/writing projects.
9. You provide thoughtful peer feedback during class workshops and commit yourself to other collaborative work.
10. You honor the writing process and complete all steps thereof (e.g. reading/researching, prewriting, drafting and revising). Revisions should indicate significant changes – extending or changing up the thinking or organization – not just editing or changing words.

*NOTE: The B+ grade is contingent on your behavior as an engaged member of our learning community.

“A” Grades:

The grade of A depends on the quality of and progress demonstrated in your final portfolio reflection. To receive an “A” as your spring semester grade, you will first need to qualify for the default grade of B+. Additionally, you will need to receive the commendation “exceeds expectations” on your final portfolio reflection.

Grades Lower Than “B+”: “B,” “C,” “D,” or “F” grades occur when you fail to complete the required 88% of minor assignments in the semester or to engage in class activities, including workshops and discussions, or you miss one or more major assignments. You are not eligible for a “B+” unless you have met the guidelines outlined above. If you are falling behind or feeling overwhelmed, please contact me before you miss an assignment. I am here to support you, and I want you to succeed.

Plea: I (Kristin FitzPatrick Ezell), as the administrator of our contract, will decide in consultation with you (the student) as to whether a plea is warranted in any case. You must come to me as soon as possible (before breaching the contract), in order to make fair and equitable arrangements. You may use a plea for any reason, but only once. The plea is not an “out clause” for anyone who happens to not fulfill the contract in some way; it is for rare and unusual circumstances out of the control of the student.

CONTRACT AGREEMENT: By staying in this course and attending class, you accept this contract and agree to abide by it. I (Kristin FitzPatrick Ezell) also agree to abide by the contract and oversee it fairly and impartially.

This grading contract was adapted from Dr. Amanda Emanuel Smith’s sample grading contract, which was adapted from Professor Angela Clark-Oates’s ENGL 220D syllabus, Dr. Ti Macklin’s ENGL 10/11 syllabus, and the scholarship of Dr. Asao Inoue and Professor Peter Elbow.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9 \(PDF\) (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>), relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on the Syllabus Information (<https://www.sjsu.edu/curriculum/courses/syllabus-info.php>) web page. Course Schedule

English 2 Schedule of Reading and Writing Assignments:

(Subject to change)

Week 1: January 22 (Begin Module 1/Project #1)

Homework to complete before class begins: none

plans: introductions, course overview, pre-reading activity, discuss first major project, brainstorming

Week 2: January 29

Homework to complete:

- Access What the Eyes Don't See ebook through MLK Library database: https://csu-sjsu.primo.exlibrisgroup.com/permalink/01CALS_SJO/tu4ck5/alma991013829512802919

-read Everything's an Argument, chapter 1, pages 1-29

-read WTEDS, Prologue, chapters 1-2

-read sample student essay

-write and submit at least one potential idea for your project #1 and an explanation of 150 words explaining connections between the readings (Dr. Mona's purpose and occasion for her argument) plans: discuss readings, develop plans for project #1, peer review/development of outline

Week 3: February 5

Homework to complete:

-read EAA, chapter 10

-read WTEDS, chapters 3-6

reading response, first draft of essay

plans:

Sept. 4: peer review, conferences, self-editing/development exercises

Week 4: February 12

Homework to complete: reading response, almost-final draft of project #1, process journal

Read WTEDS, chapters 7-10

Read EAA, chapter 11

plans: conferences, discuss articles, all-class peer development exercise, small group idea development/revision exercise

Final draft of project #1 due on 2/16

Week 5: February 19 (Begin Module 2/Project #2)

Homework to complete :

EAA, chapters 2-4

WTEDS, chapters 12-13

articles about WTEDS and other public health problems

plans: mini-presentations about readings, discuss project #2, group brainstorming for essay ideas, time to begin outlining essay

Week 6: February 26

Homework to complete:

-EAA, chapters 17-21

-WTEDS, chapter 14

-articles you find about your topic

-sample argument essay (solution-based)

-write and submit: full outline with research notes, process journal

plans: group development exercise: build a research outline; peer review rough thesis statements

Week 7: March 5

Homework to complete :

-EAA, chapters 5-6

-WTEDS, chapters 15

-articles you find (that contain fallacies)

Read/revisit: a convincing solution-based argument that you can present to the class as a model (from our readings or from outside sources)

-improve your essay by using at least one writing resource (your choice)

-write and submit: reading response about at least one significant logical fallacy in one of today's readings, full draft of project #2, process journal about how writing resources helped you build your draft

plans: present sample arguments, discuss fallacies in group mini-presentations, peer review, conferences

Week 8: March 12

Homework to complete : almost-final draft of project #2, reading response

Read/revisit before class: good and bad arguments (from EAA Part 5 or other sources), more self-directed research about your topic

plans: peer review, self-editing exercises, conferences

Final draft of project #2 due on 3/17

Week 9: March 19 (Begin Unit 3/Module 3)

Homework to complete :

Read resources about presentation and debate (including Rogerian arguments)

EAA, chapters 7-9

WTEDS, chapters 16-18

Watch Julia Dhar video

Find and share a published debate that shows "productive disagreement"

Reading response: explain how your debate resembles Rogerian methods, list community problems (especially in public health sphere) that need more "productive disagreement"

plans: prepare for project #3 (debate)

Week 10: March

26

Homework to complete : research for debate

-read EAA, chapter 12

-WTEDS, chapters 19-22

plans: group time to prepare for debate

Spring Break week: March 31-April 2

Week 11: April 9

Homework to complete : research for debate

-read EAA, chapter 15

plans: group time to prepare for debate

Week 12: April 18

Homework to complete : first draft of project #3 (debate outlines/notes)

plans: group conferences for debate presentation draft

Final Draft of Project #3 due on April 23

Week 13: April 25 (Begin Unit 4/Module 4: Portfolio)

Homework to complete : final draft of Project #3

plans:

live debates (if needed), discuss portfolio, begin reflection process for portfolio

Week 14: May 1

Homework to complete :

Read WTEDS, chapters 23-26 and epilogue

-submit and write self-reflection and group review on debate (in connection with WTEDS)

plans: finish live debate, discuss portfolio, peer review, self-editing exercises, and conferences for portfolio

Week 15: May 8

Homework to complete :

outline for portfolio

plans: peer review, self-editing exercises, and conferences for portfolio

Week 16: May 15

Homework: first draft of portfolio (Project #4)

plans: conferences, self-editing exercises

Homework: almost-final draft of portfolio project

plans: peer review and present portfolio projects

Final Portfolio (Project #4) due on May 19 at 3:00 p.m.
